

BIOLOGY IN ENGLISH

What is biology?

Think about biology. Write down five words

related to biology:

- three nouns
- two verbs.

Biology looks at how animals and other _____1_____ behave and work, and what they are like. Biology also studies how organisms react with each other and the _____2_____. It has existed as a science for about 200 years, and was preceded by natural history. Biology has many research fields and _____3_____. People who study biology are called _____4_____. Biologists must be able to show _____5_____ for their ideas.

Biology is the science of life and living things, and their _____6_____. Living things include plants, animals, fungi (such as mushrooms), and microorganisms such as _____7_____.

Biology _____8_____ to answer questions such as: "What are the characteristics of this living thing?" (comparative anatomy); "How do the parts work?" (physiology); "How should we group living things?" (classification, taxonomy); "What does this living thing do?" (behaviour, growth); "How does inheritance work? (_____9_____); "What has been the history of life?" (paleontology). How do organisms relate to their environment? (_____10_____). All modern biology is influenced by evolution, which answers the question: "How has the living world come to be as it is?"

Find words in the text to match these definitions.

- surroundings of a living organism
- an object consisting of a stalk with an umbrella-shaped cap
- the act of gradual increase
- to show or make a connection between (two or more things)
- relating to, based on

Module ENGLISH
Worksheet for students 1

| Noun | Verb | Adjective |
|----------------|-----------|-------------|
| | | comparative |
| classification | | |
| behaviour | | |
| | influence | |
| inheritance | | |
| science | x | |
| growth | | |
| | react | |

WRITING

Work in pairs. Create a story where 10 words from the chart will be used. Write a story relevant to the topic biology.

If you cannot finish the task in the lesson, finish it as a homework.

Plan your writing first. Discuss it with your partner and take notes first using your own ideas.

Thank you for your attention.